The right to attend, speak and vote at the Meeting, is extended to those holders of 25 or more shares who meet the requirements stipulated in the Articles of Association, have been entered in the Register of Book-Entry Shares administered by the Management Corporation for Systems pursuant to the Registration, Settlement and Clearing of Securities (IBERCLEAR) and its constituent members at least five days prior to the date of the Meeting in question (i.e. as of 10 January 2025), and who hold an in-person attendance card issued by the IBERCLEAR (or one of its constituent members) or the Company. Shareholder associations, representation and other matters related to the holding of the Meeting shall be governed by the Spanish Capital Companies Act, the Company Articles of Association and the provisions of the General shareholders' meeting Regulations.

REPRESENTATION. GENERAL RULES:

Those shareholders not attending the General Extraordinary Shareholders' Meeting may be represented therein via proxy (said proxy does not have to be a shareholder), provided the requirements and formalities stipulated in the Spanish Capital Companies Act, the Company's Articles of Association and the General Shareholders' Meeting Regulations are met.

Proxy representation must be completed and signed by the shareholder, by signing the corresponding representation card. Attendance, proxy and remote voting cards may be used by shareholders both to attend the General Meeting in person and to cast votes by proxy and remotely. If for any reason these cards are not available, templates for the attendance, proxy and remote voting cards may be found on the Company's website (www.corporacionalba.es).

Representation is always revocable. Personal attendance by the shareholder at the General Extraordinary Shareholders' Meeting shall be considered as a revocation of such.

The representative must present his/her authorisation on the day and at the location of the Meeting, and identify him/herself via National ID Card or other appropriate official document. If s/he is representing a legal personality, s/he must also present the deed granting power of representation. The representative must also have accepted the conferral of representation by signing the corresponding authorisation.

Each share, whether present or represented at the Meeting, grants the right to one vote.

Any delegation of rights that does not specify the name of the representative (whether in the form of a natural person or legal personality) shall be understood as having been conferred upon the Chair of the Board of Directors. This rule does not signify that the Chair of the Board of Directors or any other director has made a public request for representation by announcing this General shareholders' meeting.

If the representation conferred does not contain any precise instructions regarding voting, it shall be understood that the instruction is to vote in favour of the proposals put forward by the Board of Directors.

Unless indicated otherwise in the conferral of representation, it shall be understood that the corresponding rights also extend to proposals concerning matters not specified in the Agenda. If the conferral does extend to such proposals, it shall be understood that the representative is instructed to vote against them, unless said conferral indicates otherwise.

If the duly nominated representative is a director of the Company, he/she may be in a situation of potential conflict of interest in relation to items 1 and 2 on the agenda.

If the duly nominated representative (or the Chair of the Board of Directors, if no specific representative has been named) faces a conflict of interest regarding the vote for any of the proposals (whether they are specified in the Agenda or otherwise) to be presented at the Meeting, and if the grantor has not given precise voting instructions for the proposal(s) in question, it shall be understood that the power of representation is then transferred onto the Secretary of the Board of Directors for these specific item.

A conflict of interest shall be also deemed to exist in the event that the Meeting is invited to consider matters that are not on the Agenda and concern the withdrawal or filing of a corporate social liability action against the representative, if s/he is, in turn, a director of the Company.
